FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SPENCER COUNTY MAN SENTENCED FOR COUNTERFEITING

PRESS RELEASE

Susan W. Brooks, United States Attorney for the Southern District of Indiana, announced that JASON KELLEY, 30, formerly of Rockport, Indiana, was sentenced to 41 months imprisonment today by U.S. District Judge Richard L. Young following his guilty plea to counterfeiting. This case was the result of an investigation by the U.S. Secret Service.

In October of 2004, KELLEY made counterfeit five and ten dollar bills using a color copier and used the bills in commercial transactions. Judge Young found that KELLEY was on federal supervised release for explosives possession convictions in the Western District of Kentucky at the time he committed the counterfeiting offense.

According to Assistant United States Attorney Todd S. Shellenbarger, who prosecuted the case for the government, Judge Young also imposed 2 years supervised release following KELLEY's release from imprisonment. During the period of supervised release, KELLEY must get drug treatment. KELLEY was ordered to make restitution in the amount of $75.
